We have to apologize to the readers of the TIMES for its non appearance last week. Our excuse is the illness of Mr. B. E. Rothwell, foreman of the TIMES, and the rush of job work for the show. We did our best to procure a substitute but failed owing to the scarcity of printers in the North West. We have, however, made such arrangements as will enable us to publish every week as usual. It was really encouraging to find out how much the TIMES was missed, and to hear the many inquiries made at the office last Friday and Saturday for the paper.

Mr. Henry L. Fysh exhibited at the fair here, a span of yearling fillies, that tipped the beam at 2138 pounds. These colts have "fructified" since they were foaled and would compare favorably with eastern bred, stall fed animals.

Members of the Moose Jaw Brass Band will please take notice that on next Wednesday evening, 22nd inst., there will be a business meeting and all members are requested to be there if possible, as there is some very particular business to transact. Meeting open at 19 o'clock sharp.

McNutt damages for improper dismissal from employment. Verdict for appellant, T. C. Johnston for appellant, Wm. Grayson for respondent.

A sample of first prize wheat at the Calgary exhibition can be seen at the office of Mr. J. G. Gordon. Beside it is a sample of first prize wheat at the Moose Jaw exhibition. We do not like to say anything against Alberta, but at any rate Moose Jaw wheat does not suffer by being compared with their best.

Mr. R. L. Alexander, County Master organized a new L. O. L. at Pense, on Oct. 6th. Bro. Wm. Clarke is Master of the new Lodge which starts off with a membership of twelve, which will rapidly increase. This is the third Lodge Mr. Alexander has organized, this year.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins, M. A. of Brandon, Man. occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, morning and evening, last Sunday. Mr. Jenkins visited Moose Jaw for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements for organizing a Baptist church here. A meeting for that purpose was held on Saturday evening.

In the Presbyterian Church on Sunday last a notice of a meeting for the purpose of moderating in a call to a pastor for the church was read by Rev. Mr. Jenkins. The congregational meeting for that purpose will be held in the church on Monday, Oct. 20, at 10.30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Clay of Morris, Man., who filled the pulpit so acceptably a few Sundays ago, is the unanimous choice of the congregation.

Mr. G. L. Sherlock, the genial and obliging agent of the C. P. R. at this point for the past three years, has resigned his position here and accepted the more responsible one of train Despatcher for the N. P. R. R. at Winnipeg. George will be sadly missed not only by the patrons of the C. P. R. but also by the Rifle Association, of which he was a prominent member, and by the Church of England, where he was one of the shining lights of the choir. The promotion is well merited and we wish him every success in his new sphere.

Two weeks ago, a meeting was held at the residence of Mr. J. G. Beesley, to take into consideration the advisability of uniting the Marlborough and Pioneer Methodist preaching stations. The meeting adjourned to meet again at Pioneer, at which it was decided to unite and build a new church. A subscription list was at once opened and already upwards of $700 has been subscribed, and the building will be commenced forthwith. It will be frame on a stone foundation, and will be situated on 34-17-27, about half way between the two appointments. The people of all denominations are giving their hearty support, and before winter they will have a neat and comfortable place of worship.

Mr. T. W. Robinson handed in a charge of advertisement too late for this issue. He is offering special inducements in presents of glassware etc. to cash purchasers.

On Wednesday last as Conductor H. E. Miller was going east with his train, he saw the body of a man lying near the track, about a mile east of McLean station. He immediately stopped the train and on examination found it to be the corpse of Robert, son of Mr. James McLean, section foreman. It is supposed that he died of heart disease. Robert was well known in Moose Jaw, having learned his trade as printer in the office of the Moose Jaw News.

Mr. J. H. Ross, M. L. A., returned last Thursday from a visit to Willow Beach. He reports that the Metis of that settlement are prosperous and contented. The Half Breeds are going extensively into stock raising and dairying and have been quite successful. Mr. Legare's cheese factory has turned out about 40,000 pounds of first class cheese during the past season. The grass in the southern part of the district is splendid and the country possesses all the essentials for successful ranching. Mr. Ross was inspecting some work which he is having done in that part of his constituency.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker returned from Winnipeg on Monday morning, Oct. 6th. Mr. Baker was attending the Board of Grain Examiners as the representative of the Moose Jaw Board of Trade. He reports that business is good in the "hub of America," and that real estate is booming. The Grain Standards in his opinion were fixed much lower than last year, to accommodate the samples in Manitoba. The sample of wheat taken down by him was placed in the lot out of which No. 1 hard was selected.

The Use Of

Harsh, drastic purgatives to relieve constipation is a dangerous practice, and more liable to fasten the disease on the patient than to cure it. What is needed is a medicine that in effectually opening the bowels, corrects the constipated habit and establishes a natural daily action. Such an aperient is found in which, while thorough in action, strengthen as well as stimulate the bowels and excretory organs. "For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels became regular and natural in their movements. I am now in excellent health." — Wm. H. DeLauret, Dorset, Ont. "When I feel the need of a cathartic, I take Ayer's Pills, and find them to be more than any other pill I ever took." — Mrs. B. G. Grubb, Burrellville, Va. "For years I have been subject to constipation and nervous headaches, caused by derangement of the liver. After taking various remedies, I have become convinced that Ayer's Pills are the best. They have never failed to relieve my bilious attacks in a short time; and I am sure my system retains its tone longer after the use of these Pills, than has been the case with any other medicine I have tried." — H. S. Sledge, Wetmar, Texas.

Ayer's Pills,

BACCHUS IN CAMP

By ROBIN RUSTLER

Mingweshing, the Christian chief of the Chippewa Indians visited some of the cities of the Eastern States, a few years ago, and upon his return, the minor chiefs of the tribe gathered around him and said: "Tell us what of all you saw, was most wonderful." Deeply he meditated and then said: "When I was in the great church and heard the great organ, and all the pale-faces stood up and said 'The Lord is in his holy temple; Let all the earth keep silent', I thought: 'The pale-faces have had this religion all these four hundred years, and did not give it to us and now it is late. That is the most wonderful thing I saw.' The chiefs looked upon him and said: 'That is, indeed most wonderful! Now it is late. It is indeed noon.' The red men hate the double-tongued Indian and when they have been taught the holier principles and nobler virtues of the Book of God as possessed by the white man, they fail to understand the non-agreement of his principles with his practice. We do not find in all the native literature of the Indian tribes any Bacchanalian odes and songs in praise of intoxicating drinks. I have listened to Blackfoot songs of love and war, but never have my ears been filled with the maudlin strains of drunken ditties, although many have spoken in its favor and drunk freely of the deadly potion. The Indians were indebted to the white man for the rum, brandy, whiskey and gin, whose poisonous vapors and death dealing properties have slain, upon their native soil, countless thousands of the aborigines of our land. The drinking public called it Aqua vitae, the water of life, but it was named by Act of Parliament, Aqua mortis, the water of death. The Indians did not look so kindly upon it, as they speak of it, as Five water, the white man's drink, and in a few instances it has been called New milk. In the archives of the Seminary of Quebec there is a letter on the liquor question, probably the oldest document relating to that question as it affected Canada. It was written by a French Roman Catholic Missionary about 1705, and gave the history of French Brandy in Canada. In the early history, during Bishop Laval's time and subsequent to that period, there were two parties in the Dominion on this question, the liquor party and the prohibition party. The liquor party consisted of the fur traders who were supported by the French Governors, and the prohibition party comprised the missionaries who were sustained by the Church. Thus was Church and State arrayed against each other. The importers at Quebec sold the staff to the small furtraders. The Missionary who makes these statements says that the importers adulterated it by putting in salt and water. Modern arguments were in use in those early times for the continuance of the traffic. The whiskey traders said that the Brandy traffic was beneficial to the State, inasmuch as it collected this import duty. Brandy was good for the Indians as it protected them from the cold, and as the Dutch and English traders in New York dealt in Whiskey so the French fur traders must deal in brandy or lose the fur trade which would be taken up by these foreigners. When the French missionaries were laboring among the Indians, the Canadian Red Men argued with them in favor of using liquor. They said: "You say, God made everything; if he did, then he made brandy; you say also that everything he made, he made for man's use, hence he intended that man should drink brandy; how, then, dare you prohibit brandy?" The Philadelphia Record, examined an old petition, presented by the Indians to Penn's first Governor, (Markham) in 1681: It is as follows: Whereas the selling of strong liquors was prohibited in Pennsylvania and not in New Castle, we find it a greater inconvenience than before, our Indians going down to New Castle and there buying rum and making them more debauched than before, in spite of prohibition; therefore we whose names are hereunder written, do desire that prohibition may be taken off and rum and strong liquors may be sold (in aforesaid province) as formerly until it be prohibited in New Castle, and in that government of Delaware.

The Rev. Pere Maitland states that when he arrived at a post the trader adulterated the liquor which had previously been adulterated by the importer. He steeped tobacco in it and then gave to the Indians a tin cup full each. As soon as this flew to their heads, they demanded more. Then they had to pay for it in furs. When their furs were gone they received liquor on credit and became bondsmen to the traders and had to pay them after the next fall hunt. These traders charged extortionate prices for the liquor and the Indians being crazed with drink, would pay any sum. This missionary knew a trader at Three Rivers who obtained fifty bear skins for sufficient liquor to make him drunk for one evening. Pledges of clothes were taken from the Indians for brandy. One trader who took the blankets and clothes of the Indians as a pledge for debts incurred in drinking, was accustomed to make net profits above expenses of five hundred francs per month. Blankets were sold by the traders for four beaver skins each, and on the day following that on which they were sold, they were bought back for a pint of adulterated brandy. When they had no more furs, and could not get any more liquor on credit, they hired out their wives and daughters to the French soldiers and settlers for immoral purposes. The missionary states that they did not take the liquor because they liked it but they wished to get drunk. They would fast in order to get the full strength of the strong drink upon an empty stomach. When going to fight they would drink in order to become courageous. Terrible scenes were to be witnessed in the camps and these drunken orgies. Intoxicated Indians ran naked, stabbing and shooting each other, cutting themselves and killing their wives and children. When Bishop Laval arrived in the country in 1659, the Algonquins could muster 2,000 warriors and in 1705, chiefly through the use of brandy, they could not muster 200 fighting men.

In the early history of the Canadian North West, liquor was used by the native population to a great extent, resulting in debauchery and crime. Henry's Journal as published by C. N. Bell says: "A common dram shop in a civilized country is a Paradise in comparison to the Indian trade when two or more interests were engaged." Drinking matches were frequently held by the natives during which serious fights took place and some of the Indians were killed. Henry says that during the winter of 1801-2, stabbing affrays resulting from drinking matches were of frequent occurrence. Again it is said: An Indian arrived with his family in a small canoe, in fifteen days from Leech Lake, (now in Minnesota) and brings intelligence from that place of several Salteaux having murdered each other in a drinking match, a few days before he left. This caused a terrible uproar in the camp here, the murdered persons being near relatives of some here. There were also persons related to the murderers. The former would insist upon retaliation and it was with the greatest trouble that we prevented them by taking away their arms. They were all drunk and kept up a most terrible crying, screaming, howling and lamenting the death of their relatives. The liquor only tended to augment their false grief.

BANFF

The delightful weather is the principal topic of conversation at present. At no time during the summer have we had such delightful weather as now. The English Church people purpose quailing this fall, if material can be procured in time. Mr. Williams the new pastor is an energetic worker and is stirring the people up.

The authorities appear at last to have recognized the absurdity of some of the regulations, as some of those that were enforced with the utmost rigor are now violated with impunity.

Mr. Alexander Allan and family of Scotland have been in Banff for the past week. Mr. Allan who is one of the magnates of the Allan Steamship line has been very ill since coming here but is now recovering.

We are pleased to welcome Mrs. Parker back from Winnipeg. She has brought her family and purposes spending the winter here.

FACTS AND FIGURES—Thousands of people have been cured and thousands will be cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, the best remedy for biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, bad blood, loss of appetite, etc. Millions of bottles have been sold and all have given satisfaction.

A young man named Robert Taylor, living a few miles south of Wolsley, while out shooting, last Sunday, met with a fatal accident. He was carrying a shot gun and a rifle. Another boy was raising wild geese, and it is supposed while hurriedly raising the shot gun, his rifle, which had been cocked prematurely, discharged, blowing the top of his head off. Death was instantaneous.

THE DEADLIEST OF SERPENTS—The cobra destroys life in the aggregate than the various forms of cholera, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, diarrhea, dysentery, cramps, colic, etc. Mortality in Canada from these causes is light, owing to the general use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Sassafras, which is an infallible specific for all bowel complaints.

FOR DYSPYPSIA, Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is an effective remedy, as numerous testimonials conclusively prove. "For two years I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicines prescribed, in nearly every case, only aggravated the disease. An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of $5. Since that time it has become my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to my household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth."—F. F. McNulty, Hackman, 23 Summer St., Lowell, Mass.

FOR DEBILITY, Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Erick, 16 E. Main St., Chillicothe, Ohio.

FOR ERUPTIONS, Ayer's Sarsaparilla

And all disorders originating in impurity of the blood, such as boils, carbuncles, pimples, blotches, salt-rheum, scald-head, scurvy, sores, and the like, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
